

ROOSEVELT WITH PAYNE MOURNERS

President, in Deep Black, Sits
Beside Widow of Postmaster-
General During Funeral Services--Many Officials Present.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Although an official funeral, the services in St. John's Church to-day over the body of the late Henry C. Payne, Postmaster-General, were marked by impressive simplicity. Washington notables filled the nave of the church and brilliant as were the uniforms of the large representation from the army, navy and marine corps, the solemnity of the scene was only enhanced by the sharp contrast of color with the deep mourning of the family and personal friends of the dead Cabinet officer.

Side by side with Mrs. Payne sat the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, both in deep mourning. In half an hour after the services the funeral procession was winding its way slowly down Pennsylvania avenue, escorted by the postal carriers of the city of Washington in uniform, to the Pennsylvania station, where the body was placed on a special train for Milwaukee. The burial will be in that city, the home of Mr. Payne.

MUST ANSWER OR JAIL AWAITS HIM

Court Warns Joseph H. Hoadley that He Will Be Committed for Contempt Unless He Tells About Pool Accounts.

The examination of Joseph H. Hoadley in supplementary proceedings on the judgment of $7,000 in favor of Franklin Scott against Cyrus Field Judson, former partner of Hoadley and Joseph Leiter in the International Power pool, developed another row this afternoon, in which Edmund L. Mooney declared Hoadley would spend to-night in jail if he did not answer the questions put to him.

Justice Leventritt has ordered Hoadley to answer Mooney's questions a few minutes before, and all hands adjourned to a vacant court chamber to resume the examination.

Mr. Mooney had Hoadley open Book No. 1 to page No. 36 again, and asked: "What transaction does that first item refer to?"

"I haven't the faintest idea what it refers to," said Hoadley, emphatically. "Can you read English?"

"Well, read the first entry and tell me to what it refers,"

"I have read it and I can't tell you," retorted Hoadley.

Mr. Mooney leaped to his feet, pale with rage.

"I've got tired of this trifling. Probably you'll spend the rest of the day in Ludlow Street Jail," he said. Then he grabbed his hat and fairly ran down two flights of stairs to Justice Leventritt.

Mr. Mooney asked that Hoadley be committed to jail for contempt. Justice Leventritt denied the application, but warned Hoadley to answer the question. The lawyer will try again later.

GIRL WANTED FOR PERJURY.

Charged with Swearing Falsely in Chicago Damage Suit.

Inga Hanson, a pretty blonde, was arrested at No. 164 West Twenty-fifth street, this afternoon at the request of the Chicago police.

Detective Thompson, of Chicago, said in the Tenth Court that several months ago she secured a large judgment against the Chicago Street Railway Company in a $50,000 suit for injuries sustained in an accident. At that time she swore that she had been blinded by the accident, and that her body, from the hips down, was completely paralyzed. She gave her testimony in court from a stretcher.

After the case was disposed of the railway people put detectives on Miss Hanson's track and soon learned, Thompson says, that her injuries were not so serious as she had described them. A warrant for her arrest for perjury was issued and she was located in this city.

Magistrate Barlow held Miss Hanson's case to await the arrival of extradition papers. The woman declined to make any statement.

On Sale in the basement—Though assortments are not complete in every line mentioned, they are great enough to warrant some of the liveliest selling this Basement section has seen in many a day.

Splendid Economies in High Grade Ostrich Plumes.

Ostrich Feather Plumes are on the top wave of popularity, chiefly because Dame Fashion says they must wave atop of much of the season's finest millinery. Pure good fortune, then, that we can offer better than usual economies in this collection of French Curl Plumes—black and white effects—all perfect, with broad, hard flues:—

Length, 13 inches, usually sold at $2.25, Sale Price, $1.69.
Length, 15 inches, usually sold at $4.00, Sale Price, $2.69.
Length, 17 inches, usually sold at $6.00, Sale Price, $3.96.
Length, 18 inches, usually sold at $8.00, Sale Price, $5.34.
Length, 20 inches, usually sold at $10.00, Sale Price, $6.69.
Length, 21 inches, usually sold at $12.80, Sale Price, $9.34.

In addition there are some 18, 20 and 22 inch Plumes that tally to the description above, yet command only about half as much because of their being slightly inferior, yet you will hardly find the inferiority, if you search for it. The prices:—

18-inch Plumes, usually sold at $6.00, sale price, $3.34.
20-inch Plumes, usually sold at $8.00, sale price, $3.89.
22-inch Plumes, usually sold at $10.00, sale price, $5.84.

Characteristic Economies in This Sale of Blankets and Bedding.

With the nip of coming winter in the air and the need of warmer bedding being emphasized by it every October day and night, merchandise of this sort hardly requires a special pricing. We might ask and get every cent the makers intended their goods to sell for, but it would be antagonistic to the Macy system. So these go out to you in the usual Macy way—matchlessly low priced:—
